

PROTEST AND PARTY! – Los Angeles

Help greet Wayne Pacelle, President of the HSUS, at his "town hall" meeting in Los Angeles on October 29. Gather afterward to toast the Governor and our political allies and prepare for the upcoming battles.

Protest

Who: Real animal lovers led by We The People for Pets.
Where: The Ebell of Los Angeles, 743 S. Lucerne Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90005.
When: The doors open for the HSUS event at 7:00 PM, so we should probably be in place by 6:30 PM.
What: Picket the HSUS town hall meeting. Please bring your own signs expressing your sentiments toward Pacelle and the HSUS -- if you forget, we'll have a few extras.
Rules: We must allow people passage on the sidewalks and access to the meeting site.

Party!

Who: Hungry and thirsty real animal lovers led by We The People for Pets.
Where: Tom Bergin's Tavern (www.tombergins.com), 840 S. Fairfax Ave., Los Angeles, CA 90036 – we have some seating reserved. Tom Bergin's is about 2 miles from the event, west on Wilshire Blvd., south on Fairfax Ave.
When: The HSUS event starts at 7:30 PM, so we'll reconvene at the Tom Bergin's around 7:45 PM.
What: Enjoy getting together with real animal lovers over drinks and "pub grub" (cash bar and appetizers).
Rules: Have fun!

Invite your friends, relatives, neighbors If you think you'll attend, drop me an Email (dvchows@sbcglobal.net).

See you over picket signs, effigies and a pint of black and tan on the 29th.
